

The following diagram shows the flow of money through our financial systems. We have four checking accounts: Operating, Special Funds, Endowment and Capital Campaign. Money flows in from the left and out through the right of this diagram.

